

Dr. Dan Quaglietta Joins the Bloor-Jane Clinic

AUGUST 2011 – 10:00 AM

Co-founders Dr. Jerry Nolfi and Dr. Jill Paterson are proud to announce the addition of Dr. Dan Quaglietta to our Bloor-Jane clinic. Dr. Quaglietta graduated with high distinction from the University of Waterloo in 2011. He completed an internship in ocular disease at OMNI Eye Care in Atlanta, Georgia, and in pediatrics and vision therapy in Brampton, Ontario.

Prior to his optometric training, Dr. Quaglietta completed his Honors Bachelors of Science at the University of Toronto studying Human Biology and Physiology, with special interests in infant physiology and development. He later went on to complete a Masters in Science at the University of Toronto investigating the differences between male and female energy metabolism. His work was presented at several national and international conferences and published in high ranking academic journals. He received the Richard Rowe Research Award and the Lorne Phenix Award for this work.

Dr. Quaglietta is an active volunteer in the community and received the Gordon Cressy Leadership award for his work by the University of Toronto.

Please join us in welcoming Dr. Quaglietta to our clinic and to the Bloor West Village community.
